HONGKONG, OCTOBER 1869, 1869.

The Superintendent informs us that the P. & O. S. N. Co.'s extra steamer Ucayali left for this port on the 17th inst.The Agents (Messrs. Arnold, Karberg & Co.) inform us that the C. S. M. Co.'s steamer Ocypus, from Glasgow and Liverpool, left Singapore on Thursday evening for this port.

In his Meteorological report of yesterday, the Director of the Observatory says "the heavy rain has fallen in China owing to the last typhoon, which entered the mainland. It is also falling in Borneo."

Yesterday at the Police Court, the man Moa, who is charged with entering the house of Mr. Muse, the Italian Consul, and extracting from the safe $1,000, was committed for trial at the next Criminal Sessions on that charge.

We hear that a prominent citizen has threatened to cause the arrest of one or more of the enterprising members of the community. We are unaware whether the charge is to be public grilling or obstructing the thoroughfares.

The Japan Gazette says that Mr. Otoi, the well-known Japanese Minister in China, was entertained at a small dinner at the Chinese Minister's on the 8th instant at the Kaisen-ji, a Chinese restaurant at Kameijinmachi, Hatcho-ku, Yokohama, Tokyo. Mr. Otoi was to leave Japan for his post on the 15th instant.

A Yokohama contemporary says that coal veins have been discovered in the neighbourhood of Iwami, and that the mineral is of high quality. A copper vein, it is also said, has been discovered in the Government forest at Yotsukura-ku, Ashigara-ku, Sechu, and is now being worked on trial.

A very strong desire has been expressed by a large number of the members of this colony that some steps should be taken to perpetuate the memory of the late lamented friend, the Hon. Frederick Stewart, LL.D., Colonial Secretary. The form the memorial is to take will be decided hereafter; meantime subscription lists have been placed on the table at the Hongkong Club, and in Messrs. Lane, Crawford & Co., and Messrs. Falconer & Co.'s. The subscription is limited to $3.

The Supreme Court of California has dismissed U. S. Marshal Neagle, who shot ex-Judge Terry when the latter made an assault upon Judge Field, whom Neagle had appointed to protect. The Court held that the shooting was justified.

Yesterday afternoon, in the Supreme Court, Mr. Pollock, instructed by Mr. Rödy, appeared before Mr. Justice Wise and applied for an injunction against Messrs. Weston, Brodman & Co. and Messrs. Carlowitz & Co. to restrain them from selling, shipping, or exporting cases of ginger bearing the mark of Mr. Loong. The application was adjourned till Monday to amend the affidavit.

The Shantung piracy case was again before Mr. Wodehouse at the Police Court yesterday. Some further evidence was taken and the eight prisoners were committed for trial at the next Criminal Sessions. The other man to be wanted, the son of the son of Prince (King of Spain) Araneda and Princess Letitia Bonaparte, was remanded. Sergeant Hanlon, who was a member of the crew, was also visited by the Government agents, denied the fact, assuring the people that they called for a special notice. The 10th instant was the birthday of H. M. Queen Eliza, but no festivities were observed owing to the Royal family being in Shantung.

At Samarang, so says the Locomotive, cooling-brokings have become a profitable business, from the demand for labour in Dili. The Itas has taken a shipload of Jute and cotton from the port over ten days, but for all that, the demand is still greater.

The consequence is that even firms, which have a good deal of other business to attend to, now turn coolie recruiters.

That branch of trade which at other times such people would turn up their noses at, yields now very handsome profits.

We understand that Mr. Tong King-sing, who arrived here recently from Shanghai, has laid a proposal before the directors and shareholders of the Tawchow and Tsinshau mines to work the mines with $400,000 additional capital. The proposal is not under consideration, and is likely to be accepted.

Mr. Tong King-sing, who is a man of great energy and decisiveness, readily overcame the opposition of the Skin, and preventably heat and other Skin diseases prevalent in hot climates, and are strongly recommended for general use by all the leading and most eminent Medical Practitioners.

Our Macao correspondent in a letter dated the 17th instant, says:—H. B. Bondfield, who received to-day a telegram from Lisbon stating that H. M. King D. Luiz was seriously ill. In this news public prayers were ordered to be said at the Cathedral for the recovery of the August patient the same afternoon. The telegram was dated Cascais 16th Oct. Cascais is a village seven leagues from Lisbon where there is a watering place. The Royal family and the aristocracy of Portugal spend the bathing season at this place every year. The opposition paper has long been decrying His Royal Highness as "a scoundrel," as various who the Government agents denied the fact, assuring the people that they called for a special notice.

The Shantung piracy case was again before Mr. Wodehouse at the Police Court yesterday. Some further evidence was taken and the eight prisoners were committed for trial at the next Criminal Sessions. The other man to be wanted, the son of the son of Prince (King of Spain) Araneda and Princess Letitia Bonaparte, was remanded. Sergeant Hanlon, who was a member of the crew, was also visited by the Government agents, denied the fact, assuring the people that they called for a special notice.

The 10th instant was the birthday of H. M. Queen Eliza, but no festivities were observed owing to the Royal family being in Shantung.

Yesterday afternoon, in the Supreme Court, Mr. Pollock, instructed by Mr. Rödy, appeared before Mr. Justice Wise and applied for an injunction against Messrs. Weston, Brodman & Co. and Messrs. Carlowitz & Co. to restrain them from selling, shipping, or exporting cases of ginger bearing the mark of Mr. Loong. The application was adjourned till Monday to amend the affidavit.
